Financial advice and assistance for military homeowners and their families

The ups and downs of life can take you by surprise. Unplanned expenses, a family illness or even challenges resulting from your military service can cause your finances to take an unexpected turn. If you are having trouble paying your mortgage, don't wait another minute to find help.

What will happen when you call 1-877-AT-EASE-1?

- You will receive FREE financial advice and assistance from trusted, HUD-certified organizations.
- You will learn how to work with your lender to bring your mortgage up to date.
- You will develop a realistic household budget to ensure long-term homeownership.

The Homeownership Preservation Foundation (HPF) is proud to offer military homeowners this FREE service. Representatives work with you over the telephone, and they can even help you work directly with your mortgage company. By working together, we can offer real solutions for military homeowners.

Military homeowners at risk of losing their homes as a direct result of active duty-related hardships may qualify for a mortgage assistance grant. Grants are made available by USA Cares through a generous donation by HPF. USA Cares is a nonprofit organization that helps servicemembers and their families deployed across America and around the globe. Learn more at www.usacares.us, or talk to a representative at 1-877-AT-EASE-1 for details.

Preserve your financial stability, protect your future, and secure your homeownership.
